

Marvelous Mothers

Creative Moments

RESPOND to Mother's Day, a holiday that celebrates those who have nurtured and supported you throughout your life: your mom, aunts, grandmas, and other women you may want to honor on this special day. Identify the person then reflect on what makes that person so marvelous!

CREATE a sketch of a gift or card you will make that visually represents this person's special characteristics or something heartwarming about your relationship. Write the words and design their images, colors, and textures. Then collect materials and make your gift, adding a note with a short message.

CONNECT thoughts about why someone would treasure a handcrafted gift or card that was made especially for them over something mass produced and store-bought. How does creating your own design based on that person's interests and your shared special relationship say you care in a way that spending money can't? How do you let someone know that celebrating Mother's Day is worth taking extra time to create something original?

PRESENT your handmade gift and/or card to this person who has been such a positive force in your life. Add a smile and a hug, as well as your thoughts about the value of an original present, which could be the best gift of all.
